

MEDIA

Media

Northumbria Police Authority has a Communications Officer who is the key contact for all of the media related enquiries on behalf of the Authority.

What is the Communications Officer responsible for?

- Advising on all aspects of media relations and corporate communications;
- Advising on draft or overseeing the drafting of written copy for publications;
- Providing publicity for Police and Community forums by means of press releases, posters and door to door leaflets.
- Supervising the Police Authority website, and updating contents and design where necessary;
- Brief media spokesman, as required
- Making audio recordings of interviews with key personnel, to distribute for local radio use.
- Deal with all media enquiries relating to NPA.

For more information please contact NPA Communications Officer